

2006 Call for Papers

The planning staff for Lubrication Excellence 2006 and Reliability World 2006 Conference and Exhibition would like your help in providing attendees with motivating, informative conference sessions. If you are interested in presenting a paper at Lubrication Excellence or Reliability World next year, please submit an abstract that includes the following information:

- Title of Paper
- Name and contact details of author(s) and/or presenter(s)
- 250 word or less abstract
- Identify the target audience
- Identify the benefits to attendees

The Commercial presentations are the only sessions identified for commercialism. Don't miss this opportunity to promote your company and its products and services to your target market and the decision makers from companies around the world. These sessions are available on a limited basis.

Forward to:

Lubrication Excellence and Reliability World
1328 East 43rd Court
Tulsa, OK 74105
918-749-1400, ext. 109
E-mail: awegener@noria.com

Abstract Deadline: August 5, 2005 Completed Papers: November 18, 2005

* Submitting an abstract does not guarantee that a paper will be selected for presentation. All abstracts will be reviewed and evaluated by the conference editorial committee.